A HEAVY JUDGMENT AGAINST COL-BOYCE.-William M Riddle, formerly presi dent of the Penn Bank, of Pitteburg, who now lives in New York, has obtained a judgment by default in the Supreme Court which the judgment was obtained, it is set forth that on or about December 15, 1887, Riddle procured a loan for Boyce of $25,000 and also found a purchaser for $1,200,000 of the common stock of the Covington and Macon Railroad Company at par value, Boyce is supposed to have been interested in the railroad whose stock he wished to sell and Riddle declares that for floating the stock and procuring the loan, Boyce was to pay him $70,000 in money, besides giving him $250,000 worth of the stock at par value. Riddle declares that he has not yet been paid for his services, although he has fre-quently demanded the money and stock. Mr. Boyce is still in the South looking after his railroad matters there. He will undoubtedly attempt to have the case opened when he returns - Shepherdstown Register.

A TALE OF WOE .- After being detrined a prisoner for twelve hours by five men in an unoccupied house at Glaseboro, N. J., Carrie Betson, a 16 year-old girl, was released only to be arrested on a charge of robbery. The girl was found on the street wearing a dress that was stolen from a house in Glassboro, and as she could not satisfactorily explain her possession of the dress she was sent to jail. Yesterday the unfortunate girl declared that she had been afraid to tell her story because she had been afraid to tell her story because she had been afraid to tell her story because ane had been threatened with death. She said two young men enticed her into an unoccupied building at Glassboro and assaulted her. They were joined by three other young men, and she was kept a prisoner and terribly maltreated from 10 o'clock at night until 10 o'clock the next morning. Her captors gave her the dress she was found in and threatened to kill her if she gave information against them. Efforts will be made at once to apprehend the accused .- Phil, Record.
